Goodwill of Southern Nevada is pleased to announce that Chris Cappas, Vice President of Employment & Training, Las Vegas region for Harrah's Entertainment, Inc. has been named to the Goodwill of Southern Nevada Board of Directors.

Cappas is responsible for managing the largest employment center in Las Vegas and oversees the day to day operations of the recruitment and training of more than 3,000 new employees a year. She has held this position since January 2006.

Cappas began her career with Harrah's Entertainment, Inc. in 1999 as the Training Manager at the Rio. She has held various positions with the company, including Employment Manager of Harrah's Las Vegas and the Rio, and Harrah's Hotel Manager in 2005. Her extensive recruitment and training experience in the airline and retail industries have proven to be valuable to her success in the gaming industry.

Cappas is a member of the Society for Human Resource Management and the American Society for Training and Development. She received her Professional in Human Resources Certificate in 2001.

Goodwill of Southern Nevada's mission is to educate, train and employ people with disabilities and other special needs to help them maximize the quality of their life. In 2009, Goodwill of Southern Nevada helped 889 people get jobs through the Career Connections program and provided services to nearly 6,000 people.
