Don't dump that old computer. Donate it!

Thanks to a national partnership between Goodwill Industries International and Dell called ReConnect, Goodwill of Southern Nevada is now able to recycle your old computer and computer equipment – free of charge! That means your old monitor, mouse, printer, laptop or computer tower won't end up in a landfill.

Donating to Goodwill helps the environment and the community. Goodwill helps people get jobs, a critical mission when unemployment in Las Vegas is at 14.2%. Last year, in a down economy, Goodwill of Southern Nevada helped 889 people find employment through our Career Connections program. Our help is free and available to the public.

HOW TO DONATE:

- Bring your old computer or computer equipment – regardless of brand or condition - to any Goodwill of Southern Nevada donation center. We have more than thirty donation locations across the Las Vegas valley.
- Donors who drop off their computers or computer equipment will receive a tax receipt.
- Donors are responsible for removing ALL personal data prior to donation.
