This Wednesday, March 2nd marks the ninth “Mobile” Store that Goodwill of Southern Nevada has brought to the Las Vegas Community. College of Southern Nevada’s Charleston Campus will host this latest “Mobile” Store.

What is a “Mobile” Store? A Mobile store is a miniature version of a Goodwill Retail Store, only it appears for just a few set hours on a few set days in a public space.

Since 2009, Goodwill has held “Mobile” Stores at UNLV’s Bob Boughner Career Services Center, Harrah’s Laundry Facility, and Rio Hotel & Casino.

“Because of how popular the “Mobile” store was at UNLV, Goodwill looks forward to expanding our “Mobile” Store market to CSN.” said Goodwill President & CEO, Steve Chartrand. “Goodwill “Mobile” Stores help to introduce new customers to the Goodwill brand – a brand that combines high quality with great value.”

The profits from all items sold at “Mobile” Stores fund Goodwill’s job placement and job training programs. With the unemployment rate at 14.5%, the need for these services continues to climb.

Goodwill will continue to partner with Caesars Entertainment, UNLV and now CSN in scheduling additional “Mobile” Stores in 2011.
