Goodwill of Southern Nevada is excited to announce the addition of 2 new donation centers to its current roster of 32 donation centers throughout the Las Vegas valley.

The new center at Deer Springs and 5th Street will this Saturday, January 8th.

The new center at Blue Diamond and Arville will open on Friday, January 21st.

“Goodwill is pleased that the demand for our donation centers continues to increase,” said Steve Chartrand, President & CEO of Goodwill of Southern Nevada, “The more locations we have, the easier it is for the community to donate, and an increase in donations means an increase in funding for our job training and job placement programs.”

In 2010, Goodwill helped 1,072 people find work through its Career Connections centers, which are open to the public and offer FREE career counseling, resume help and job leads.

The new donation centers will accept donations from 9 am to 9 pm. For a complete list of all Goodwill of Southern Nevada donation centers visit www.sngoodwill.org.

Each donor of “gently used” goods receives a donation receipt for tax purposes.
