Town Square partners with Goodwill of Southern Nevada for Movies in the Square

...movie-goers can donate gently used items at free community event

LAS VEGAS (April 9, 2010) - Town Square's Movies in the Square program is back for its third sequel on May 6, and this season has a community-driven twist. Movie-goers can help support Goodwill of Southern Nevada, Inc. by making a clothing donation on site at Town Square during each movie. Patrons who drop off a gently used clothing, book or household item at the Goodwill truck located behind Tommy Bahama's Restaurant & Bar will receive a discount card for several Town Square stores.

"Right now a record number of people in our community are unemployed or underemployed," said Steve Chartrand, president & CEO of Goodwill of Southern Nevada. "Donation drives are critical. When you donate 'gently used' items to Goodwill, you are helping fund free job placement, education and training for anyone in our community who needs help finding a job."

Movie-goers can watch their favorite flicks in Town Square Park the first and third Thursday of the month from May 6 through August 19. Films will all be rated G or PG and will be shown on a 25 ft. by 35 ft. screen starting at sundown. Seating is on a first come first serve basis and patrons are encouraged to bring lawn chairs or blankets to sit on.

"We wanted to make it as easy as possible for people enjoying the movies to contribute to someone in need so we brought Goodwill to them," said Mary Kathryn Wells, director of marketing for Town Square.

Movies in the Square is free to the public and children must be accompanied by an adult. All events are weather permitting and the schedule is subject to change. Town Square is located at 6605 Las Vegas Blvd. at the intersection of I-15 and the 215 Beltway.
